What's new in Handball Manager - TEAM:

PRESIDENTS When Universidad Católica de Valencia (UCV) took over the COPA BOLIVAR U20 Women after a campaign of lobbying led by Coach José Ruiz Lapouble, you could not guess that the team would achieve such success in its first experience in junior international competitions. Under the leadership of the Ladies Vice President Marília Rico, and with the sponsorship of Unipol Insolvencias, a private banking group specialized in loan restructuring in Argentina and the Caribbean, UCV women's handball team qualifies to the World Cup, and in the corresponding qualification tournament they surprisingly win the tournament in the finals. The team, that started off from the Category B Clásico, gets into the A SEV one handball tournament, in El Salvador, made up of 20 teams with a tournament procedure in a similar way to the European Clubs Championship. Again, under the guidance of Coach Ruiz Lapouble, the team has a modest and unimposing performance in the tournament, fourth place, only one win and several draws throughout the eight days. There is no surprise in the performance of the team; it is not the handball version of Sergio Massa, the leader of the Handball Colombia, and especially in this category, a victory over United States is scandalous. However, this does not lead to a quiet summer season for the UCV women's handball team in the COPA BOLIVAR U20 Women. While the team continues to work hard by qualifying to the regional game in the Dominican Republic, the Catalan Ladies quickly forgot their level and qualify for the Cup Winners Cup, the only open tournament for amateur women teams, which will start in November in Hungary. At a time of few opportunities for money in the championships of Spain, the team, with few sponsorship possibilities, puts its capital in a leadership role for the first time in the history of the competition and manages to block the participation of some of the larger teams in the finished places of the second chamber, teams that, with well-off purses, would be difficult to stop. In such a difficult situation, the president of the team, President of the University Rubén Pallarola, directs one of the best goals and most dangerous penalties saved, that of Lady President María Soledas, who even plays in the same side as President Pallarola in most matches. Even with such demands on the team, there are no doubts about the coach Ruiz Lapouble, a man
